This responds to your letters dated May 10, 2013 which requested modifications or further information regarding the following reports of the above referenced committee:

?30 Day Post-General
?12 Day Pre-General
?Year-End Report
?October Quarterly Report

We have electronically amended the reports listed above. For convenience of your reference, a chart that tracks your requests for additional information and the action we have taken is being mailed to you via USPS. The mailing also includes a list of contributors that have either had their personal information updated or we are awaiting response to our best efforts to get that information (which is in addition to our requesting personal information upon the initial solicitation). In the circumstance where we do not have any personal information, such is noted. Further, Please let me know if you have any additional questions or concerns. In the meantime, as we receive additional contributor information, we will update the reports in accord. Thank you.
